

.....

The American Bar Association
Standing Committee on Law and National Security and the Committee on National Security Law, Policy & Practice of the Bar Association of the District of Columbia invite you to attend a reception and program on

Careers In National Security Law

A panel discussion designed for law students, those considering law school and young lawyers to explore how to turn their interest in national security into actual practice. Panelists will include lawyers from the Legislative and Executive branches, the intelligence community, and the private sector.

Tuesday, July 26, 2011 5:30 - 7:30 p.m.
Law Offices of WilmerHale 1875 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, DC

Moderator: Ben Powell, WilmerHale and former DNI General Counsel

Panelists:

M. Tia Johnson, Col. Judge Advocate, U.S. Army, Special Assistant for Legal and International Security Affairs, Office of the Secretary of Defense, Legislative Affairs

Ken Wainstein, O'Melveny & Myers and former Assistant to the President for Homeland Security and Counterterrorism and former Assistant Attorney General for National Security

Jill Rhodes, member Standing Committee on Law and National Security

 representatives from the Legislative and Executive branches, invitations pending.

We will have time at the beginning and at the end of the program for networking. A limited number of the Committee's book "Careers in National Security Law" will be available free of charge.

.....

*There is no charge for the program and reception, however RSVP's are required. Please RSVP to: Bernie.horowitz@americanbar.org.

